IMPORTANT DISCOVERY!

PHOTOGRAPHIC OIL PAINTINGS ON CANVASS.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE JUST PATENTED their new process for taking Photographic Impressions on Canvas, and are now prepared to take them in this city. The correctness of delineation and beauty of these paintings, which are produced with two short sittings, and a trifling expense, can only be fully appreciated by examination. Faithful life-size portraits made by this process from daguerreotypes of deceased persons. Our other various styles of colored Parisian Photographs, taken as usual, and at no other establishment in America.

J. GURNEY & C. D. FREDERICKS, No. 46 Rue Basse du Rempart, Paris, and No. 349 Broadway, New York. j8

PHOTOGRAPHS.

THE UNDERSIGNED INVITES ATTENTION TO the specimens of this Art exhibited at his Gallery, No. 359 BROADWAY. Heretofore the French have been regarded as the only successful practitioners of this beautiful novelty in Art; an examination, however, of the results exhibited at his establishment will convince the Public that the acknowledged superiority of American Daguerreotypes extends also to the kindred Art of Photography.

Any desired size, from life to small miniatures, taken perfectly without re-touching. They are susceptible of coloring, and thus supply the place of Oil Portraits or miniatures. Copying carefully executed by this process. Large copies produced from small originals.

Daguerreotypes from Life, Old Pictures, Paintings, and Statuary, as usual.

M. B. BRADY,

359 BROADWAY (OVER THOMPSON'S).

(From the New York Daily Tribune.)

There is no better musical critic in this country than John S. Dwight, of Boston, and few men are able to express what they have to say about music in a manner at once so poetic and precise. His articles are sure to please the learned in music, and to delight its lovers. We commend his journal unreservedly to our musical friends as a work which will be an able running commentary upon musical events, extracting from each its significance, varying its critical notices of music and musicians, both new and old, with biographical and entertaining details; and always true to what is most interesting and commanding in this noblest of the Arts.

(From the Boston Evening Transcript.)

Wherever there is a pianoforte, this Journal ought to be lying on it.
